

Interactive Learning

Introduction

Have you been giving fair and deliberate attention to the importance to interactive learning in your courses? Do you buy material or access to online platform for interactive learning? As we all know today student is more interested in using gadgets. It is significant in wisdom to be a interesting user of interactive tools and material in classroom for enhancing learning & teaching and learning. Now a day's use of various tools is becoming vital to incorporate in your classroom teaching, it allows students to practice in many different ways that can change student attitude of learning and teaching. Our training offer on Interactive learning will make you use of various tools without any cost burden on you and your students. Join us on training and change your ways of seeing thing through learning.

Sessions

Session 1
MetaPlan
&
Interactive
Questions

Session 2
Learning
with summative
Assessment

Session 3
Collaborative learning &
Peer
assessment

Session 4
Peer tutoring with King
Society
Method

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of the course you are expected to:

- Creative questioning to learning, explaining why questions lead to student active learning
- Use of EdPuzzle to implement a blueprint Spot learning Summative assessment.
- Edpuzzle can support teacher track progress of student and summative assessment of their assignment.
- Designing and developing rubrics to support peer assessment
- Developing ideas to develop prerequisite peer assessment skills in participants

Director of CBC

Dr. Rupesh Vasani
Director, SAL Education Campus

Manager of CBC

Prof. Simple Doshi
SAL Education Campus

Trainier :

Prof. Rekha Patel

SAL Training & Refinement Center (STAR), SAL Education Campus, Ahmedabad